EXAM PROCEDURES

1.a)Mr. Capovilla will notify students and teachers of exam conflicts by Monday, January 14, 2008.

b)Unless there are extenuating circumstances (i.e. medical), all exams will be written at the time indicated on the schedule. If an exam is rescheduled it will be written AFTER ALL EXAMS ARE COMPLETED. All special circumstances must be approved by Mr. Capovilla by Tuesday, January 15. No individual arrangements can be made with teachers.

2.All students writing exams must:

- a)be in the examination area ten minutes prior to the examination
- b)leave pencil cases, purses, gym bags, cell-phones and electronic devices (i.e. iPods, MP3 players, Game Boys etc.) outside the examination area
- c)no water or drinks will be allowed in the gym
- d)wear appropriate civies
- e)keep exam papers directly in front of you at all times
- f)remain silent while in the examination area

3.If you are LATE for an examination, extra time will not be granted, unless your excuse has been approved by Mr. Capovilla, Vice-Principal.

4.If you are ABSENT because of illness, a doctor's note may be necessary. Without such a note where required, you will receive "0" for the examination. Please call the school if illness occurs.

5.If you are not scheduled to write an examination, you do not have to be present at school (no regular classes are held). If you choose to be here, you are to be in the study areas or receiving extra help.

6.Study Areas:1.Quiet Individual Study - Library
2.Group Study - Cafe

7.It is your responsibility to return all materials and textbooks issued to you in September or to reimburse the school for lost items. Students who have outstanding materials will not be allowed to attend classes in Semester 2.

8.There is no cafeteria service during exam days.

BEST WISHES & SUCCESS TO EACH AND EVERYONE!
